

Workshop Agenda

MundoB Brussels, Belgium
18 March 2018

G-100 aims at creating an interactive space for dialogue between newcomers and local Europeans in the communities where refugees live, in order to foster dialogue, find solutions for certain social problems and make refugees' voice heard in decision-making processes.

-Morning Session-

10:30 – 11:00 Arrivals & Registration

11:00 – 11:30 Introduction to G-100 & Workshop Program

Ayham Saif Eddin: G-100 Founding Member

Mohammed Badran: G-100 Founding Member

Wajdi Alkak: G-100 Founding Member

Mary Emily Farnsworth: Workshop Coordinator

Bruno Mola: World Cafe Methodology

11:30 – 12:45 Discussion of Challenges in Democracy & Higher Education

Identification and group analysis of challenges within the topics of democracy and higher education, to create a free-flowing, open and inclusive discussion

12:45 – 13:15 Break

13:15 – 14:00 Presentation of Challenges

Presentation by moderators of challenges raised in discussions for information sharing, questions and answers, and debate

14:00 – 14:45 Lunch Break

Lunch provided for all workshop participants and attendees

-Afternoon Session-

14:45 – 16:00 Discussion of Recommendations in Democracy & Higher Education

Group discussions will move to recommendations of creative solutions for the challenges raised

16:00 – 16:30 Break

16:30 – 17:15 Presentation of Recommendations

Presentation of recommendations formed through discussions, providing content for the policy recommendations to be presented at the larger G-100 Conference

17:15 – 18:00 Conclusion & Closing Remarks